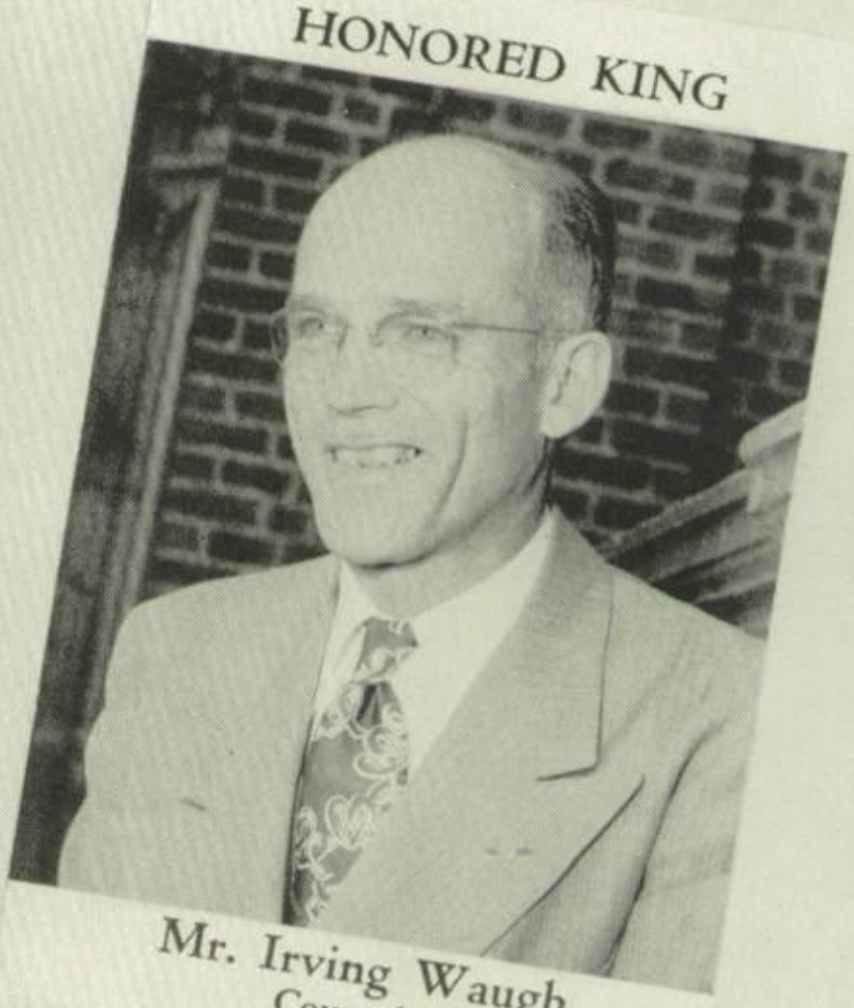
HONORED QUEEN

Miss Alice Macdonald
Counselor

HONORED KING



Mr. Irving Waugh
Counselor

To you, our counselors, Miss Alice Macdonald and Mr. Irving Waugh, we the graduating class of June, 1949, gratefully dedicate this book of memories. » Just yesterday, when we were L10's, you explained the complexities of high school life to us, and made us feel at ease in this new place to which we were unaccustomed. Now, three short years later, we are about to embark into an even stranger world, and because of you, everything we attempt will be done with self-assurance and confidence. » We are the product of your guiding hands, and your inspiration will be with us always to spur us on to greater triumphs in the unknown that lies before us.

Lady Joanne

Valedictorian

IN MEMORIAM

We who are graduating have been fortunate in knowing the happiness of high school days, but there is one who, because of his untimely death, lost these best years of his life. Don Francis has not been forgotten, however, and we, his classmates who knew him best, will perhaps be conscious of his spirit marching down the aisle with us on the night of our graduation.

Through song and story we have learned to know

Who lived in Arthur's court so long ago.

And ever have their courage, their ideals
